Dear Professor Muradov,

On behalf of Clarivate Analytics please accept our most sincere wishes on the occasion of the 90th Anniversary of Azerbaijan State University of Economics (UNEC). Your university has an illustrious history. UNEC graduates have made an indelible mark on the whole history of the Republic of Azerbaijan, and continue to make major contributions to its progress. Under your leadership, UNEC has established itself not only as one of the major centers of learning, research and innovation in Azerbaijan, but has also acquired reputation for academic excellence well beyond its national borders.

On this occasion I would like to highlight particularly fruitful and friendly relationships between Clarivate Analytics and UNEC. We are proud to collaborate with UNEC as one of our key partners. We are happy to see, as one of the results of our partnership, the raising publication output of UNEC authors in the top global research journals, bringing UNEC's achievements much greater international visibility. We hope that our co-operation will stay strong and develop to the new levels in the future.

We wish all and every success to you and all members of the UNEC family in raising to the new horizons in learning, teaching and producing new insights in research and understanding of modern societies for the lasting benefit of the Republic of Azerbaijan and the global scholarly community.

With most cordial wishes,

Tor Bengtsson
