Guest Lecture Series on Sustainable Development Goals

BECOME A SPEAKER, MAKE AN IMPACT

GUEST LECTURE SERIES CALL FOR SPEAKERS

The UN Sustainable Development Goals sets a very clear target for a better and sustainable future for everyone. Institut Teknologi Sepuluh Nopember (ITS), a leading university in the field of science and technology in Indonesia, is committed to support the UN Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs). We support the education on SDGs through the online Guest Lecture Series (GLS) on Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs) program which has been a great success since its launch in 2020.

GLS on SDGs 2022 is now back with new chapters, inviting experts and academics from around the world to deliver guest lectures in any fields of interest related to UN Sustainable Development Goals. The audience of this program are ITS students at any level (Undergraduate, Graduate, and Postgraduate) as well as interested global citizens. We are seeking professors and lecturers as potential speakers to share knowledge and experience in various topics from SDG 1 to SDG 17. Be ready to make an impact and register your interest today!
